

RHEA 750 OPEN

This very solidly built Rhéa 750 combines a tough appearance with sporty sailing characteristics. Thanks to the clever layout, there is a spacious cabin under the steering console. Here you will find, among other things, a double bed, toilet and a galley with stove, refrigerator and sink. This sporty sailing weekender is propelled by a 240 hp Yanmar diesel which also makes longer trips at sea or water skiing no problem. This ship is newly painted and has new tarpaulins. The cockpit is self-emptying and is finished with low-maintenance teak.
